TRAIL BOSS TRAINING (Advanced)

DATE: October 6, 2018 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

LOCATION: Meet in the parking lot at the Chilao Visitor Center
(We will be working on the Silver Moccasin Trail, north of the Chilao Road)

DIRECTIONS: The Chilao Visitor Center is located in the Chilao Recreation Area. From the 210 Freeway in La Canada, go north on Angeles Crest Highway (Hwy 2) about 27 miles to the Chilao Recreation Area, about 200 yards past the Devils Canyon Trailhead. (If you get to Newcomb's Ranch, you have just missed your turn.) Follow signs to the visitor center, on the right. We will meet in the parking lot. Allow 60 minutes driving time from the 210 Freeway. Please carpool if possible.

WORK PLANS: We will work on the Silver Moccasin Trail, between Chilao and Horse Flats. Be prepared to hike, with tools, to the work sites a short distance from the vehicle parking area. The objectives are to learn how to perform brushing, tread improvement, and erosion control, in the vicinity of the trail. The primary focus of the day will be instruction in water management and erosion control techniques, and improvements to the tread and a switchback using rock techniques to repair erosion damage and make the trail more sustainable under increased bicycle use. This is expected to be a hands-on learning experience. We can arrange for groups to work together.

SAFETY CONCERNS: Be especially careful on all mountain roads and be prepared for motorcycles, bicycles, hikers, and other cars. During the work sessions be careful to avoid dehydration and heat exhaustion. Poisonous plants in the burn area can be a skin and respiratory hazard.

Please be prepared for bugs and snakes. Bring sunscreen, extra water, snacks and adequate lunch for working until about 3:00 pm. We expect to cover advanced sessions listed below:

Snow and Ice Travel Training - 2018

Enjoy the challenge of high-mountain travel with confidence in your safety and knowledge of snow and ice travel techniques. Sharpening your judgment and learning the skills needed for safe and effective practices for snow slope travel will allow you to expand the places that your Unit can visit in the winter outdoors.

This High Adventure training is an optional follow-on to Winter Camping and Travel. It begins with a seminar immediately following the Winter Camping and Travel seminar on Saturday, November 3, 2018, at the Cushman-Watt Service Center, 2333 Scout Way, Los Angeles. The special equipment for snow and ice travel will be displayed and the requirements for, and location of, the field training will be discussed. A syllabus that covers the materials discussed will be given to each participant.

Field training will be held on a Saturday in January 2019, in the Mt. Baldy area (an Adventure Pass is required for your vehicle). You will be taught how to properly use crampons and an ice axe. You will practice using the ice axe to make a self-arrest and for exhilarating glissades. A forecast of insufficient snow or of extreme weather conditions will cause the field training to be rescheduled. Some special equipment (rent/borrow/buy) will be needed.

A fee of $5.00 is charged for the training. Registration is required by October 19, 2018 and it may be submitted along with Winter Camping and Travel. You will be sent a confirmation, or notice of cancellation if there are fewer than 5 sign-ups by that date. Completion of this training is recognized by the award of a special patch.

Attendance at Adult Leaders Backpack Training and at Winter Camping and Travel (which may be taken the same day) are prerequisites to taking this course.

Winter Camping and Travel Training – 2018

Winter brings a special stillness to the local mountains. The year-round camper knows that the pests of summer – insects, most animals, other people – have gone to ground for the season. While the snowy peaks may appear close and inviting, that same camper knows that the weather and trail conditions require special preparation, skills, and equipment.

The objectives of this training are to acquaint the adult Scouter with an understanding of the winter environment and to emphasize those backpacking skills which are necessary to ensure a safe and enjoyable experience.

This High Adventure training begins with a seminar Saturday, November 3, 2018, 8:00 am to about 6:00 pm, at the Cushman-Watt Service Center, 2333 Scout Way, Los Angeles. There will be a 45-minute lunch break; attendees may bring lunch or purchase it from a near-by take-out. Rolls and coffee are furnished. The seminar is conducted as a series of presentations and demonstrations. The emphasis is on preparing for, and dealing with, a mountainous winter environment, be it rain, cold, snow, or some combination. Sessions cover: the physical demands of winter conditions; snow travel hazards & equipment needs; health & safety; navigation and route finding; menus; food & water needs; and personal clothing & equipment. The desirability of having a "Plan B" and the necessity of providing for unexpected changes in the weather or trail conditions are explained. A syllabus that covers the materials discussed will be given to each participant.. Participants are invited to attend the Snow and Ice Travel seminar that follows it (see the separate training bulletin).

The weekend field trip provides the opportunity to demonstrate these specific skills in a winter environment. A weekend backpack in Mt. San Jacinto State Park will be discussed (about 5 miles, round trip, from 8,600 to 10,000 feet). Snowshoes will be worn while backpacking. The trip is scheduled for February 9 and 10 2019; a forecast of insufficient snow or extreme weather conditions will cause rescheduling. Each person is responsible for obtaining the specialized equipment needed for the trip.

A fee of $25.00 is charged for the training. Registration is required by October 19, 2018. You will be sent a confirmation, or a notice of cancellation if there are fewer than 5 sign-ups by that date. Completion of this training is recognized by the award of a special patch. Completion of this training is a requirement for earning the High Adventure Leader Award.

Completion of Adult Leaders Backpack Training (ALBT) is a requirement to taking this course.

Navigation & Orienteering Training - 2018

- ❖ Do you feel uncomfortable about taking your Unit into new locations?
- ❖ Do you want to improve your navigation and route-finding skills?
- ❖ Have you considered orienteering as an activity for improving your Scouts' map and compass skills?

A course in navigation and orienteering will be conducted by the members of GLAAC-HAT on November 10, 2018 at the Firestone Scout Reservation. We will begin Saturday with discussions of the tools of navigation and strategies for their utilization. There will be demonstrations of various types of maps and compasses. Topics will include route finding, collecting terrain features, the Global Positioning System (GPS), disoriented, avoidance of getting lost, and getting "un-lost". The special problems and techniques associated with route finding on the snow and in desert terrain will be discussed. These activities will be followed by participant-led map-hikes which use the detailed orienteering map for Firestone.

A field experience will be held, in association with the Los Angeles Orienteering Club, on a date to be announced. Participants will help officiate in an LAOC Orienteering meet.

A fee of $15.00 is charged for this training. Registration is required by October 26, 2018 as space is limited. This fee covers the cost of the outing including the day use fee at Firestone including course maps and materials. Attending a Los Angeles Orienteering Club event will be a separate outing and an additional fee is payable to that Club. Additional information about the Los Angeles Orienteering Club will be presented and can also be found on its web site, <http://LosAngelesOrienteering.org/drupal>. Completion of this training is recognized by the award of a special patch.
